

Where to look for a job

Finding a job that is close to home or your learning center will save time with transportation. Brainstorm a list of job locations where you would be able to work. After brainstorming places to apply, think of how and when you will apply at each one. List the skills needed for each of the jobs.

List at least 2 jobs close to your home and the skills needed for each:

1.

2.

List at least 2 jobs close to your learning center and the skills needed for each:

1.

2.