SUBJECT: Adult Education and Family Literacy and Carl D. Perkins Funding Opportunities

The Florida Department of Education, Division of Workforce Education, is pleased to announce the availability of the 2007-2008 funding opportunities for Adult Education and Family Literacy, and Carl D. Perkins (Career and Technical Education). The funding comes from the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Vocational and Adult Education (OVAE).

The purpose of these funds is to create voluntary partnerships between federal and state governments and localities to serve the state of Florida's Adult, English Literacy and Civics, and Career and Technical Education student populations. All funds will be awarded to support the Florida Department of Education's goal to align Workforce Education programs with the skill requirements of the new economy.

The information for the 2007-2008 funding opportunities is located on the Division of Workforce Education's website at <http://www.firn.edu/doe/dwdgrants/grants.htm>. Instructions and information for the following funding applications are available:

- Adult Education and Family Literacy, Competitive Request for Proposals
- Career and Technical Education, Discretionary Request for Applications
- English Literacy and Civics Education, Competitive Request for Proposals
