Strategies for Essay Writing

Helping Adult Learners Become Stronger Writers

Writing personal essays gives ABE/Literacy, GED, and ESOL learners the opportunity to express their opinions and thoughts about topics that are meaningful and engaging to them and to their readers. By writing personal essays and stories, learners become familiar with the steps of the writing process and learn the power of written communication. In this free webinar, we'll explore activities and tasks that help learners:

- ❖ select a topic that engages and excites them,
- ❖ do prewriting activities to enrich vocabulary and extend ideas,
- ❖ organize their thoughts, ideas and feelings about the chosen topic,
- ❖ compose a rough draft and prepare for editing, revising, and eventual publication

This session will provide teachers/tutors with a variety of strategies, models, handouts, prompts, and graphic organizers to help students develop writing fundamentals so they can more effectively express themselves through writing.
