

Free Online Tutor/Teacher In-Service Training

Enriching Your Financial Literacy Library

Date: January 27, 2011 Time: 12:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Objective: Participants will learn about the extensive collection of free financial literacy resources available through the Florida Literacy Coalition's website.

Teachers and tutors working with adult learners often need a variety of financial literacy resources, but may not know what resources are available. This training will give individuals the opportunity to review free hard-copy and online curricula from financial literacy organizations. Participants will be guided through the Florida Literacy Coalition's new expanded financial literacy web page. These new resources will provide tutors and teachers additional tools for individual and classroom instruction.

Join us and discover other helpful tools to incorporate into your lesson plans!

Fee: Free! Please share this with your fellow tutors and teachers.

Participate from the comfort of your own home or office. All you need is a computer with speakers and an access to the Internet. How does it work? We will send you a web address (URL) when you register. Approximately 5-10 minutes before the workshop is scheduled to begin, you simply go to that URL, enter your full name, and click "Login" to access the session.

Presenter: Macario Garcia is AmericCorps*VISTA for Florida Literacy Coalition. During his time at FLC, his focus has been financial literacy. Mac is coordinating a statewide initiative to expand financial literacy in adult education programs. His professional background includes social work, and educational and financial counseling.
