

Facilitator Biography:

Marilyn Cox - Executive Director, Manatee Literacy Council

Marilyn has been involved in adult literacy for 20 + years. After serving as a volunteer tutor, Marilyn became a Proliteracy Certified Tutor Trainer in 1993 and then Executive Director for READ Jackson County in Indiana. Retiring and moving to Florida in 2009, she began volunteering for the Literacy Council of Sarasota. Marilyn came out of retirement and took the position of tutor trainer and program manager for several years. After retiring once more from Sarasota in 2014, she is now serving as Executive Director for Manatee Literacy Council.

“I look forward to facilitating this workshop and working with old and new Florida friends, sharing tutor tips, strategies and answering any related questions.”

“Let the Adventure Begin!”
